This spiritual bath is good for getting rid of all sorts of diseases you may have, and bring all sorts of prosperity you may want, and it can be done at any time during the year. However it is better to do it during the summer solstice period of June 21, 22, 23, and 24. But the most efficient way to do it would be June the 24th at 12:00 PM. Therefore make sure you prepare everything before 12:00 PM YOU MUST START EXACTLY AT 12:00 PM your time.

The reason is because that is the only time the sun is at its highest peak, this only happens once a year. This is when the light triumphs over darkness therefore, when the Sun is climbing to its highest peak and shining brighter than ever, we must also do the same with our intentions towards our lives.

These are the ingredients you are going to need to perform this experiment.

WARNING!!! If you are doing this in your shower you must cover the drain, because the parsley will clog up the draining hole, plus you will need the remnant of the bath to throw away outside the house or bury it. If you choose to bury the items, dig your hole way before you begin, so after you are done you can bury it ASAP also you must make the coffee beforehand then bring it before you start bathing.

Now all the 4 gates are open and the energy is starting to flow. All the spirits are here you might feel chills and the area becoming cold, that's' all right keep on moving.

STEP 2

Activate the Parsley by raising them to the East and say your intentions that you want to do whatever you wish to say. Then to the South, say your desire and turn to the West do the same thing, turn to the North and do the same as well.

After that, put the parsley in your recipient and start plucking out the leaves with a knife or by hands while doing so you may speak and ask all the stuff you want to accomplish according to your will.

STEP 3

(Optional) Add the 7 bags of the Tabak, however the Tabak is a protection against the attack of Infernal spirits, malevolent angels aka demons, skin poison aka (Kout Poud) and negative energy).

Always facing East while you are doing your work, if you have it, if not do not worry about it.

STEP 4

Add the 7 cokes then mix the leaves and coke together to make it look like a soup.

STEP 5

Add 7 drops of booze in the bath.

STEP 6

Add 7 drops of coffee in it also.

STEP 7

Add the 7 pennies, coins, or any monetary funds from any country one by one just like you did with the booze and the coffee.

STEP 8

Facing East before you pick up the bath you must say "I brought this cash I owe no one" then lift up the bath to the 4 quarters of the universe by thanking them. then light up the second black candle.

STEP 9

START BATHING with the old clothes on you. AT 12:00 PM AND ASK "Just like the Sun is shining at its highest peak I want my life also to shine as the sun."

Just like the Sun is shining at its highest peak, I want my wisdom to also do as such. I want my spiritual library to be extend to its highest point, I want my relationship with the Mighty One to shine in the darkness just like the Sun is today shining bright, I want my health to shine just like the Sun I want all my woes, depression, doubt, fear, Ignorance, health issues and economic misfortunates to stay in the darkness.

And I want my blessing, happiness, assertiveness, courage, great substance, wisdom and knowledge to shine and triumph over the darkness, just like during this summer solstice, the Light prevails over the darkness. This is just an example: ask whatever you want. I would suggest you to prepare and write down your desires and demands, if you have cancer, any sickness ask for healing.

STEP 10

Once finished, wipe your body with the black towel or black cloth take your old clothes, the black candles or you can let it burn and the remnant of the bath including the rest of the parsley and bury it by saying "I bury all my woes, misfortunes and bad luck forever" then dump it in there, cover it.

If you can't bury it, throw it in the outside trash, the out dumpster, the landfill, by saying "I throw away all my woes, misfortunes, bad luck forever".

DO NOT LEAVE THE OLD CLOTHES AND TRASH INSIDE YOUR HOUSE, because you just removed all that negative energy do not let it inside your home, throw it as far away as you can.

Remember to thank the spirits by closing the 4 quarters of the universe, let the candles burn out if you wish, or you can snuff it out by sending the spirit away in peace.

Take a regular shower to cleanse all of the stuff. If possible, when you are going to sleep at night, wear all whites, cover with a white sheet, linen or blanket tomorrow you will wake up a new person.

Give the Mighty One all praises and great glory APTMMH MTKRF
